

Under our private label brand (Medline), we distribute a vast range of dressings and bandages products in private and public sector. Our commitment to sourcing high quality materials, supported by a dedicated sales team, has led our brand to become No.1 in private market. Yet we are keen to continuously improve our range to retain our leading position in the market.